

151

WHEREAS His MAJESTY hath been graciously pleased to Grant his Letters Patents under the Great Seal of England, and hath given Liberty and Licence to Set up, Erect, and Publish one or more Plate Lottery, or Lotteries, or any other Lotteries whatsoever, in any part or parts of the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, &c. And whereas John Ogillby Esq; Master of His MAJESTIES Masques, Revells, and Interludes in this Kingdom of Ireland, hath by his Power Granted Leave, and Given Licence to me, under the Seal of his Office of Revells in Ireland, and the Hand of his Deputy, his said Power being Enrolled in the Office at Dublin, to Publish, or Make Shew in this Town,

And so on of Dublin or any other Town, City, Corporation, Village, or Fair in the aforesaid Kingdom of Ireland, a certain Sport for the Moderate Recreation of all Civil Persons, called or named, The Wheel of Fortune (which Power is ready to be produced) I do hereby let all Persons know, That here you may venture for Pewter, or other Goods at so fair and plain a Dealing, that will give good satisfaction.

The Nature of the Sport is such, That if Six venture at six pence per piece, One of the Six must carry away a Prize worth Three shillings.

Those that venture but Four pence, will carry away a Prize of Two shillings.

And those that are minded to venture but Two pence, will carry away a Prize of One shilling.

any shop in Christ Church yard over the 4 Coats